Interactive Banner:
EXPLORE

When the user clicks on “EXPLORE”, it will be zoomed in to cover the rest of the banner, like below.

Then, a navy-blue rectangle will move into the screen from left to right; making the cryptocurrency's letters appear gradually.

EXPLORE

Crypt

See the ending result below. We will stay on this frame for a couple of seconds.

Then, the text fades and we will have a navy-blue background.

Then the cryptocurrency’s icons will drop down from the top randomly, probably bouncing a couple of times when they hit the bottom of banner. They will freeze at one moment and the icons will remain at their place.

On mouse-over each of the icons will change their colors to their original colors.

On click for each of the icons, a pop-up window will appear with some information about the currency. Below you can see what I have in mind. However, I am still not satisfied with the design. I will create more études and share with you as we go along.
